Sundays at Landmark presents: Nothing is Cooler than Kilts in February!
A Scottish Ramble Invades Landmark Center
February 18 & 19, 2012

SAINT PAUL, MN - A Scottish Ramble returns to Historic Landmark Center on February 18 from 9 am to 5pm and February 19 from 12 to 5 pm. Children and adults alike can celebrate everything Scottish at this largest indoor Scottish Festival in the Midwest! Enjoy a range of activities including the highly popular Kirkin' of the Tartans ceremony, the Highland dance competition and performances by the Minnesota State Police Pipe Band, Ross Sutter, Brian Boru Pipe Band, Willow Brae, The Gunn Slingers and Thistledown.

Admission is $5 for adults and $3 for kids and seniors. For more information and a full schedule of events please visit www.scottishramble.org. Parking, directions and information about Landmark Center can be found at www.landmarkcenter.org.

A Scottish Ramble is a part of Sundays at Landmark, an event series is produced by Minnesota Landmarks, the nonprofit programming and management agency for Landmark Center. Sundays at Landmark is sponsored by Travelers Foundation. Landmark Center, owned and sponsored by Ramsey County, is located in downtown St. Paul at 75 West 5th Street, facing Rice Park, next to the Ordway Center for the Performing Arts and The Saint Paul Hotel. Landmark Center is accessible to those with impaired mobility. Parking is available on street and in nearby Macy's, Lawson, Science Museum and RiverCentre Ramps.
