Take a new look at Saint Paul

Landmark Center's summer art exhibit focused on Saint Paul

SAINT PAUL, Minn. (May 14, 2018)—Spend some time in Landmark Center this summer and see Saint Paul through the eyes of several artists. “Saint Paul ReViewed” begins, June 7, with an opening reception from 5-7 p.m. The summer exhibition will feature three temporary installations and several pieces from Landmark Center’s permanent art collection.

“Landmark Center started showcasing visual art during the summer months in 2014,” said Judy Brooks, Director of Community Programs at Landmark Center. “Last year’s theme was ‘community,’ open to the artists’ interpretation. This year, we’re entirely focused on Saint Paul as the subject matter.”

The “Saint Paul ReViewed” opening reception, June 7, launches two installations, “Our St. Paul: Celebrating 125 Years of the St. Paul Camera Club” in the North Gallery and “Explorations - Two Artists’ Views of Saint Paul” by Michelle Daniels and Brad Daniels in the second floor galleria and third floor balcony spaces. The third installation, “All About St. Paul: A City in Watercolors,” will preview during the June 7 opening reception, then officially open July 19 in the North Gallery. This second half of “Saint Paul ReViewed” features watercolor paintings by Jeanne Kosfeld.

In addition to the temporary exhibits, several works in Landmark Center’s permanent art collection will be highlighted:

Bill Hosko’s oil on canvas, "Daybreak in Rice Park"
