Sundays at Landmark, traditions for all ages

Landmark Center's popular art and cultural program series

ST. PAUL, Minn. (Aug. 13, 2018)—A full calendar of heritage festivals, musical performances, and holiday celebrations, Landmark Center's 2018-2019 season of Sundays at Landmark, kicks off on Sept. 23 with the annual Mid-Autumn Moon Festival. The Sundays season runs September through May and consists of 18 Sunday afternoons of free and low cost, family friendly events.

"Sundays at Landmark celebrates the arts, and our diverse community's cultural traditions by presenting experiences that are engaging, uplifting, and accessible," said Judy Brooks, Director of Community Programs. "We'll present 18 Sunday events this year, which means there's almost always something going on at Landmark Center."

New this year, are the Latvian Centennial Celebration, the Balkan Festival and a concert by music group, Border CrossSing. The season also includes long standing traditions, such as St. Paul Civic Symphony concerts, the Irish celebrations, and Urban Expeditions.
