Landmark Center launches 2018 season of Urban Expedition

Popular cultural/travel event series returns January 21

ST. PAUL, Minn. (Jan. 3, 2018)—Satisfy your travel bug this winter and “travel” around the world with Landmark Center. The 2018 season of international adventures kicks off on Jan. 21, 1-3 p.m. Urban Expedition is always free and features crafts, exhibits, music, dance and live animals. Also, food representative of the featured county is available for purchase.

“Urban Expedition is a celebration of the Twin Cities community,” said Judy Brooks, Community Programs Director. “We partner with local organizations to bring these events to life. Groups that represent each country’s Minnesota community, such as the Icelandic Hekla Club, bring a wealth of cultural knowledge and share it with our audience at each Urban Expedition event. It’s a wonderful way to get a glimpse into a new country or culture and have a global experience without having to leave town.”
