Landmark Center Celebrates the Golden Age of Hollywood The Fourth Annual "Once Upon a Time Gala" is set for November 4

ST. PAUL, Minn. (Oct. 12, 2016)—Travel back in time to the 1930s and the Golden Age of Hollywood at Landmark Center’s fourth annual Once Upon a Time Gala on Friday, November 4, 2016. The gala is an annual benefit supporting Landmark Center’s free and affordable arts and cultural programs.

The evening begins at 5:30 p.m. with a cocktail reception, followed by an elegant dinner at 7 p.m. catered by The Saint Paul Hotel. Highlighting the event will be live music from the 1930s performed by Kate Lynch and Her Most Excellent Fellows. Additional features include a red carpet entrance, specialty cocktails, and actors portraying famous 1930s movie personalities.

“The Once Upon a Time Gala celebrates Landmark Center’s place in history and in the community,” said Helen Wagner, Landmark Center Gala Committee Co-chair. “Through the years Landmark Center’s role as an historic building has changed, but the building and its cultural programs continue to be a vital part of the community. That is what we are celebrating and supporting.”

All are invited to join Landmark Center for an evening of movie stars, Hollywood glamour, and a surprise or two. Black tie is optional, and period costumes are encouraged! Tickets are $150, and can be purchased in advance on Landmark Center’s website, or by contacting Minnesota Landmarks for registration materials at 651.292.4375 or admin@landmarkcenter.org.

The Once Upon a Time Gala is supported by leadership sponsor, Mairs and Power, and other major sponsors: All City Elevator, 3M, Briggs and Morgan, The Saint Paul Hotel, Winthrop & Weinstine, and The Opus Group, as well as other generous sponsors.
